

TAB B

C O N F I D E N T I A L

DCI TALKING POINTS

SIG(I) Meeting
1400 Hours. 1 August 1983

[REDACTED]

25X1

- o NSSD-2/82, in part, called for an assessment of the structural and organizational impediments to achieving capabilities required to counter the total hostile intelligence threat against the United States. [REDACTED] 25X1
- oo These so called "Organizational Studies" were deferred so that the higher priority Capabilities Against the Hostile Threat Study could be produced. [REDACTED] 25X1
- oo In June, we met to discuss the counter-HUMINT focused Counterintelligence Organization Study, completed by Judge Webster's IG/CI. [REDACTED] 25X1
- oo Before us now is the non-HUMINT Countermeasures Organizational Study, completed by General Stilwell's IG/CM. [REDACTED] 25X1
- o Each of you has received, for review, a copy of the CM Study. I have called this meeting to discuss that study and its recommendations. [REDACTED] 25X1
- oo I fully appreciate the work that both the IG/CM and the many supporting departments and agencies have put into centralizing

C O N F I D E N T I A L

C O N F I D E N T I A L

data on our complex and disparate countermeasures security system. [redacted]

25X1

oo This study sets forth, for the first time in collated form, considerable detail about ^{US} government countermeasures agencies and functions, ^{working on} [redacted]

25X1

o I now ask General Stilwell to brief us on the highlights of the study and his recommended course of action. [redacted]

25X1

A "heads up" on Stilwell's presentation follows as Enclosures 1-3.

C O N F I D E N T I A L